

Asian Pacific Day – May 13, 2004

This year, APAC celebrates the Asian Pacific American Heritage Month on May 13 at the Technical Center. The program features several cultural activities.

Scenic pictures of China will be displayed at the atrium for the entire month of May. After the May festivities, APAC plans to give away these pictures.

Besides the exhibition, there will be cultural performances in the auditorium from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. The program includes:

- Chinese music instruments and music
- Indian dances
- Korean dances
- Japanese dances
- Western music instruments and music.

Following the performances, audiences are invited to join the food sampling that includes Chinese, Indian, Japanese, Korean, Thai, Vietnamese, and Singapore delicacies.

Please come and join APAC to celebrate Asian Pacific American Heritage Month on May 13.
